Expectations of Students.

Rule	Why
Parents must drop children to the hall every morning.	For safety reasons, children are not responsibility of staff until in the hall.
Bags must be hung on coat rack and not on floor (No bags to classrooms)	To keep children and staff safe and avoid trips
Breakfast must be eaten before activities. (remember to use hand gel)	So breakfast is not missed as last breakfast served at 8.20am
All children must feel included in activities, older children expected to lead by example	To ensure all children have a happy start to their day
Equipment must be kept on mats or tables to avoid tripping hazards	Safety and ensuring toys remain in good order
Only disabled toilets to be used you must request a blue band	So staff know where children are at all times
No children are allowed to leave Breakfast Club hall without an adult, we will dismiss onto playground (FS2 Taken to class) once bell has rung	Safety
Children are not to let friends in through any out side door. Teachers only to open doors	Safety
All children expected to help with clearing club away and toys to be treated with respect and stored in correct boxes	Team work and respecting toys
Prayers are expected to be said by all children	To show we are in sympathy with school faith
No balls inside	Safety

I will ensure I follow rules so I and my peers are safe and happy 😊
